PLAY THE GARDEN ROUTE WITH A CHOICE OF FIVE *GOLF PASSPORTS!

With the addition of four top courses and four alternative 'Passport' packages, this popular golf concept is proving to be even more in demand than ever.

Passports are at a premium with both local and international golf enthusiasts clamouring to sign up for 2010. And it's not surprising since they gives golfers access to nine top golf courses on South Africa's famous Garden Route - at a fraction of the fee!

The Garden Route has always been a popular golfing destination with world-class courses in Mossel Bay, George, Knysna and Plettenberg Bay. This year nine courses unite to bring golfers a variety of Garden Route Golf Passports valid from 15 April 2010 - 31 October 2010.

The choice of courses includes George Golf Club, Kingswood Golf Estate, Mossel Bay Golf Club, Pezula Golf Estate, Plettenberg Bay Country Club, Goose Valley Golf Club, Pezula Championship Golf Course, Pinnacle Point Golf Resort and Oubaai Golf Estate. Passport holders enjoy great value access including a round of golf at each of the participating courses, a hassle free booking service and expert advice on where to stay and what to do in the area.

The original Garden Route Golf Passport – with five courses – comes at a set price of just R990 excluding golf cart rental, half way house snacks and the 19th hole. Four alternative Passports are newly on offer for players with less time or those keen to do more than one tour. Starting with the Par Passport of three courses for just R550 and building up to the Albatross Passport with four courses and including golf carts for R1 850.

These unique Passports to golfing pleasure are marketed by Forty-Two in much the same way as a Tour Operator would sell a packaged tour. It's a win-win situation for everyone as golfers enjoy reduced fees and participating courses benefit from increased sales during the low season... when the weather on the Garden Route is still beautiful.

The Garden Route Golf Passport also makes an excellent gift for the golfer who has everything - and it's a whole lot more exciting than balls and tees. Passports can be purchased as a "gift-voucher" and makes a perfect present.

"We are delighted with the healthy demand," said Andrew Rissik, Managing Director of Forty-Two. "Our Passport offers an unequalled concept and extraordinary value which is reflected in the nine participating courses. 2010 is going to be a great year for soccer... and also for South African golf!"
